

1. Are you a current or recently graduated international student from JCU Singapore?

 复制图表

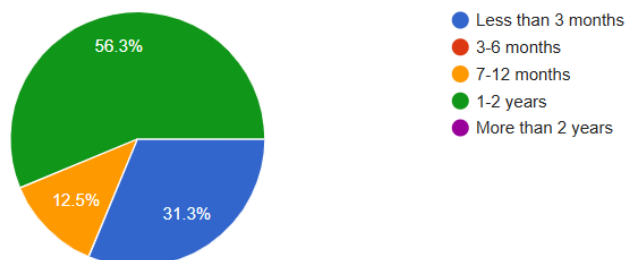

(16 条回复)

2. How long have you been studying, or did you study, at JCU Singapore?

 复制图表

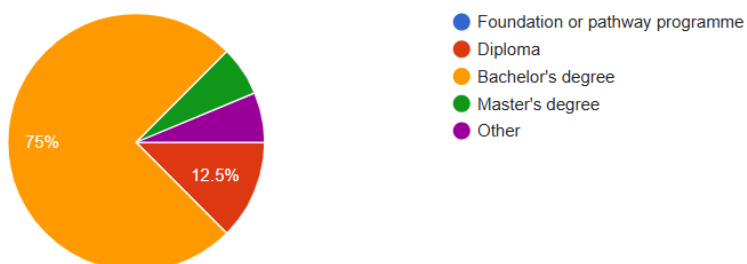

(16 条回复)

3. What is your current or most recent study level?

 复制图表

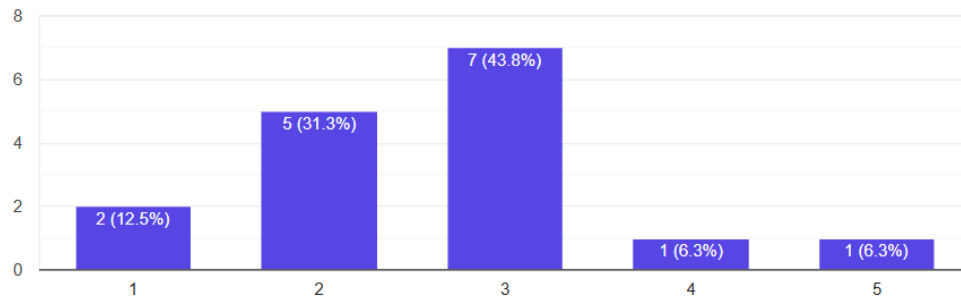

(16 条回复)

4. Before arriving in Singapore, how confident were you about completing important settling-in tasks?

复制图表

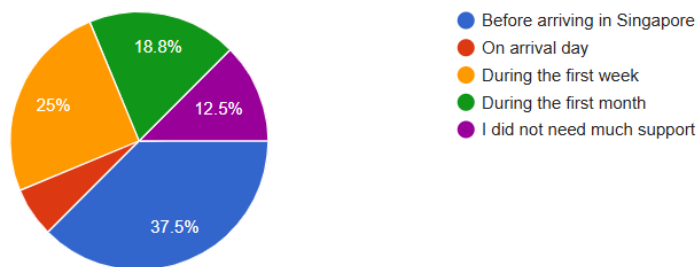

(16 条回复)

5. During which stage did you need the most support?

复制图表

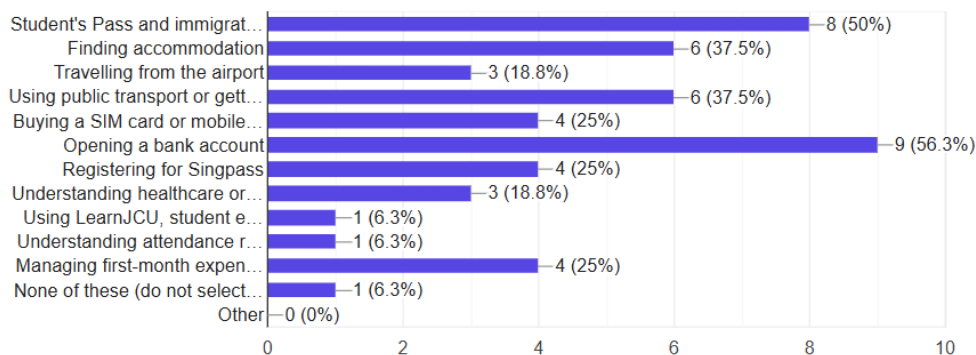

(16 条回复)

6. Which tasks were difficult or confusing during your first month?

复制图表

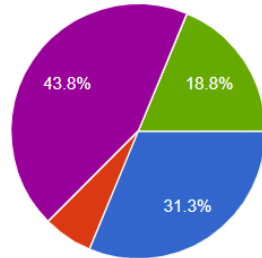

(16 条回复)

7. Which single task should a new international student complete first after arriving in Singapore?

复制图表

(16 条回复)

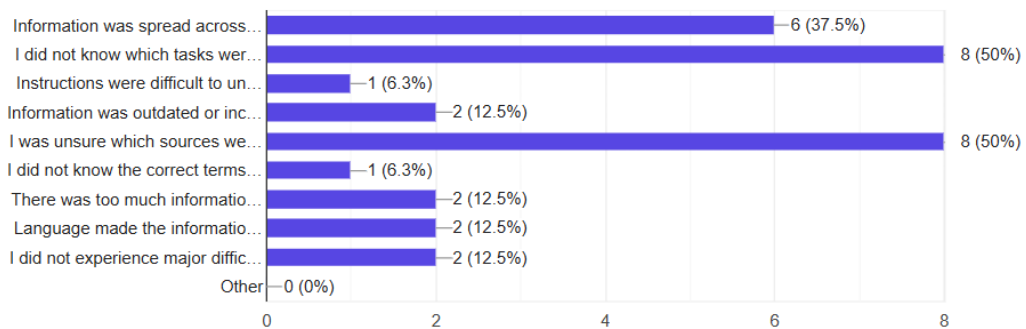

- Student's Pass and immigration requirements
- Finding accommodation
- Travelling from the airport
- Using public transport or getting an EZ-Link card
- Buying a SIM card or mobile plan
- Opening a bank account
- Registering for Singpass
- Understanding healthcare or insurance

1/2

8. What made first-month information difficult to use?

复制图表

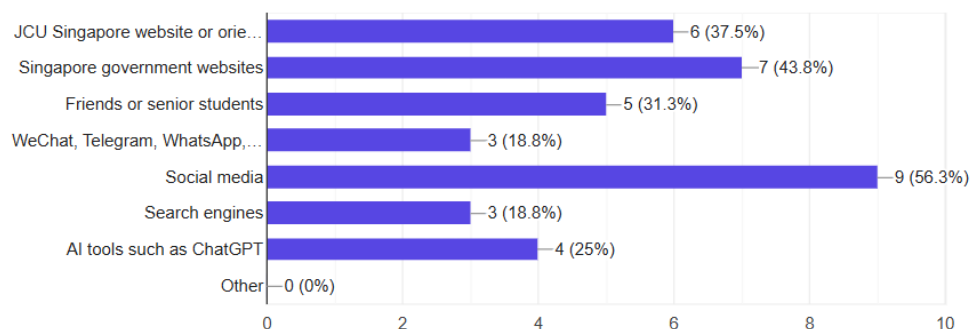

(16 条回复)

9. Where did you usually look for settling-in information?

复制图表

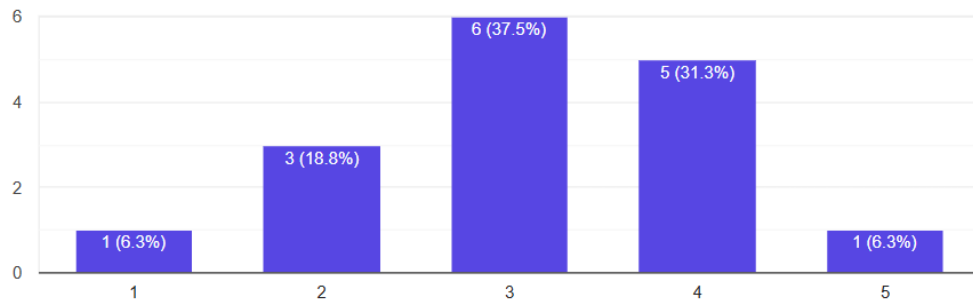

(16 条回复)

10. How easy was it to find reliable information when you needed it?

复制图表

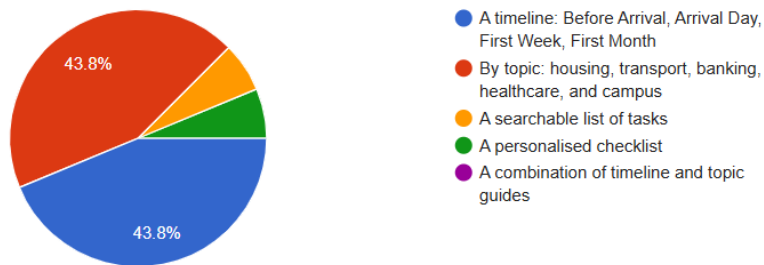

(16 条回复)

11. How would you prefer first-month information to be organised?

复制图表

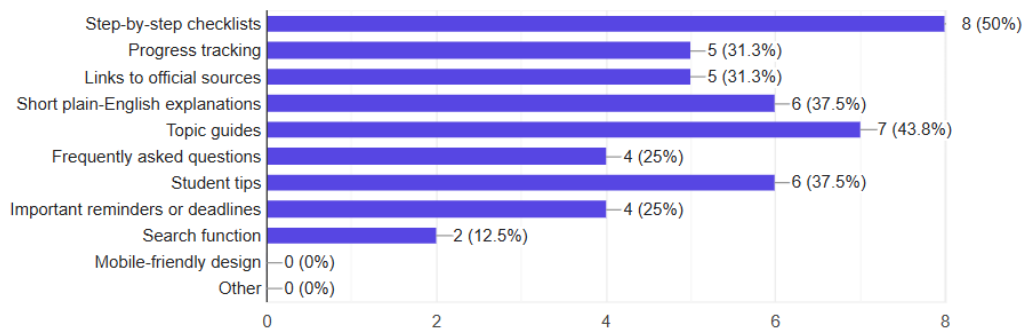

(16 条回复)

12. Which features would be most useful in a first-month student guide?

复制图表

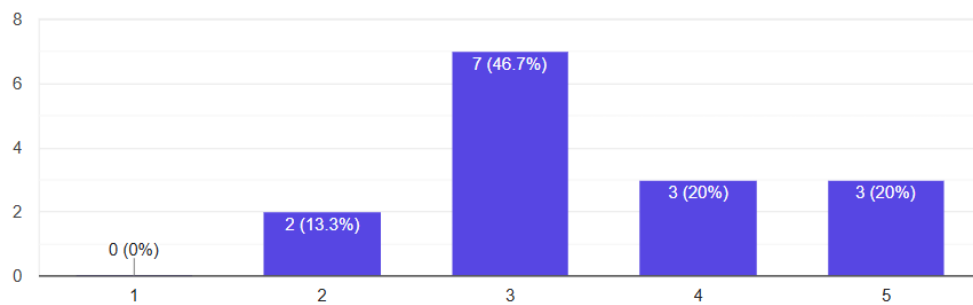

(16 条回复)

13. How important is it for every important step to link to an official source?

复制图表

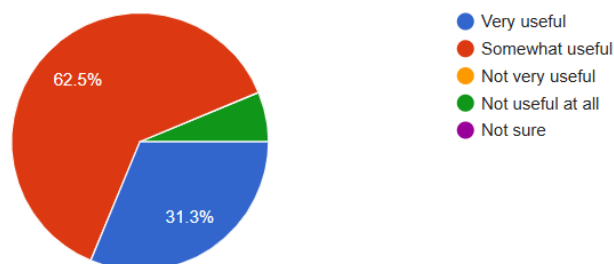

(15 条回复)

14. Would a progress tracker that saves completed tasks be useful to you?

复制图表

(16 条回复)

15. What is one thing you wish someone had explained clearly before or shortly after you arrived in Singapore?

(5 条回复)

nothing

How to apply for a phone card and a bank card

I wish someone had explained the local academic assessment system clearly when I first came to Singapore. I had no idea about the coursework, group projects and grading standards at the beginning.

What should be done and what is important to do

N/A